It is sometimes a little surprising to note the things that people will do to escape a "fuss." Good-natured New York merchants testify to paying blackmail to escape "fussing" with the police over sidewalk blockades. Ex-Supt. Cline tells the armor-plate investigators that he changed reports at Carnegle's to avoid 'fussing' with Government officials, who might be too particular. There are men who consider themselves good citizens, and who yet forfelt their right of franchise to save themselves the "fuss" of going to the polls. CLOSE OF THE SAERGERFEST.

Since last Friday New York has been afforded an excedent opportunity to judge of the social qualities and law-abiding character of the German-American diffigen. There have been festivals papades, amusements and excursions. Every German resort has been crowded. for the Germans are a mirth-loving peoole. There has been a great consump ion of lager beer, for the Germans like ager. But everything has been orderly and the streets have been free from rowdylam

One striking feature of the Germanfest in family groups. The German takes his wife and children with him when he celebrates, and this has a humanizing influence. Yesterday at Gravesend Bay the great excursion was rendered doubly enjoyable because the attendance was largely in family parties, This German practice is a good one and is one of the reasons why the licensing of Sunday evening concert gardens finds favor with so many people in New York.
The farewell gathering at Ulmer Park was an enjoyable affair. The prizes appear to have been awarded with Judsment and discretion. Everybody seemed satisfied, the night ended with spirited and merry dancing, which was kept up until a late hour. Then the company dispersed, the old folks well pleased, the young dancers tired and delighted, the fat, indifferent babies fast asleep, and the Seventdenth National Saengerfest was brought to a close.

Some women in Ohto are preaching an earthly heaven, which they say exists near Detroit. This is an astoundingly delightful announcement. Most of us who don't care to die and have the wrong things written on our tombstones will be glad to learn that 144,000 persons are to be whisked off to heaven in every-day clothes, and with our wallets in our pockets, so that we can buy a snack or two along the road if necessary.
